Honors Day

BIRMINGHAM-SOUTHERN COLLEGE

May Seventh
Two Thousand Twenty

President's Message

May 2020

It is "Honors Day." It must be spring. Like other rituals, this ceremony marks time as consistently as nature itself. Each year, we recognize those who embody the ideals of Birmingham-Southern College – as leaders in our campus community, through academic excellence, and through accomplishments outside the classroom.

We enter the ceremony carrying the Mace, an academic tradition that links this day to a century of ceremonies held on the Hilltop. An invocation recalls our Methodist tradition and the values that permeate our academic study and our call to service. For seniors, Honors Day is the culmination of four years of work ending in recognition before their peers and faculty. Honors Day is also the beginning of several ceremonies marking the end of their college careers. The Class of 2020 deserves special recognition for its resiliency in finishing their academic careers without the joy of celebrating the last eight weeks on campus with their classmates.

As with all Birmingham-Southern functions, there is great music, usually choral and often accompanied by Dr. Lester Seigel on piano. The music connects us, those who came before and those who will come after.

Perhaps my favorite part of Honors Day is the speaker, a recent alumnus who exemplifies how a BSC education translates to real world experience and how students can make a difference in the world beyond these gates.

Next we award honors. There is nothing I can write that can replace the feeling of receiving an honor in front of your mentors and peers. I am sorry that this pandemic has taken that away from many of you. I hope very much that we can capture some of this feeling at a future celebration.

In closing, we sing our Alma Mater: "Forward ever! Be our watchword; Conquer and prevail, Hail to thee our alma mater; BSC, all hail!"

Congratulations to those receiving honors. The lack of ceremony does not diminish your accomplishments. Thank you to faculty and staff for all you have done to maintain the personalized educational experience online. For students honored today, thank you for your contributions to BSC. We are excited to watch how you take what you have learned to make the world a better place. We look forward to seeing you back on "The Hilltop" soon.

Daniel B. Coleman
President

Salute to Seniors

Dear Class of 2020,

I hope this message finds you in good spirits. Please know that I share in a number of the difficulties experienced during our transition to online coursework. As we approach the finish line, our graduation from Birmingham-Southern College, it feels as if we are coming down the final straightaway with a pulled hamstring.

However, if I know anything about us as a senior class, it is that we are a resilient group of people with various racial, class, and gender identities. I want to salute each of us, for we all have orientation friends that ultimately did not make it to this point in the race. To that point, a number of us became a part of this BSC family as a transfer or international student. I want to salute each of you and share how grateful I am that you chose this institution.

During this unprecedented time, I deeply miss the Caf, the library, and the classroom. Not so much for the things each of those places offered, but for the chance to have genuine human connection. I cannot wait to see you all again.

Finally, I ask that you try to remember the fall of 2016 as the Chicago Cubs were champions and we were singing "Closer" by The Chainsmokers as loud as we could. Now fast forward to the spring of 2020. Take some time today to reflect on this moment, for all the good, bad, and the ugly, and congratulate yourself on reaching a milestone.

Best wishes,

Alma Mater

On the city's western border,
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our alma mater
As the years go by.

"Forward ever!" Be our watchword;
Conquer and prevail.
Hail to thee our alma mater,
BSC, all hail!

Cherished by us all forever,
Alma mater strong,
Hold our faithful hearts and minds
As we sing this song.

"Forward ever!" Be our watchword;
Conquer and prevail.
Hail to thee our alma mater,
BSC, all hail!
